

PrivaSphere is the innovative Swiss Platform for secure eMail and Online Applications. To grow our services and technology to the global level, we are looking for a dynamic

Software Engineer (Full Stack)

Your Responsibilities

- Project Management
  - Assist Sales in Offering new functionality to customers
  - Support COO in all technical matters
  - Advance DevOps, continuous deployment, hardening
- Further development of the PrivaSphere Technology and Platform (Front- and Backend), in particular
  - Enable and execute the scaling of the current mid-sized special service to a mass-calibrated, commercial global service (“Single Page”)
  - Add new features and eventually new product lines
- Roll-out of a world-class automated security testing framework for quality assurance and efficient regression testing
- Documentation of the technology for a growing development organization and due-diligence/audits

Your Profile

- Excellent knowledge of security (JSSE/JCE, openssl, gnupg, BouncyCastle)
- Excellent software development skills: Java / RDBMS / web applications / CSS
- Proficient in Java-related (open source) Frameworks (such tomcat/jsp, jdbc, javamail) and JavaScript
- Understanding of messaging topics (basic experience with MTAs such as Postfix advantageous) and operating systems (basic Linux/Windows admin skills)
- Team Player, Team Leader
- Ready to settle in the Zürich area with a long-term commitment
- Capable of conceptual advancement of the technology
- Self-starter, relentless personality fitting into a growth environment, motivated for highest performance in particular in the area of security, entrepreneurial spirit.

Your Opportunity

Take the opportunity to co-shape a leading Swiss IT Security Startup in its growth phase. Mr. Ralf Hauser is looking forward to your application and resume.

Your future developer-colleagues

Join our young, openminded developing-Team with Noël and Michele.

Noel: Nice Swiss guy, doesn't like coffee but has always good vibes. You can find him in the mountains either paragliding, hiking or snowboarding.

Michele: Nice Italian guy, with really high cooking skills and passion for outside sports. Motivated to run the Zurich half-marathon.

Both really appreciate the commitment for a weekly apéro on Friday evenings.

We are looking for someone to bring in new ideas and show new ways to deliver to our customers the best experience possible